

Getting started with the site admin

The Site Admin is a central hub for clients and administrators to navigate and configure various aspects of their website efficiently.

Accessing the Site Admin

- Navigate to the Site Admin using the Settings cog at the top right of the header navigation. As a site admin, you can access the site admin from any space on your site.

The Site Admin provides you access to all aspects of your site. The links below will navigate you to separate site admin sections for additional guidance and information on each section.
